CHURCH MATTERS.

At the Baptist Sunday School at Danville Sunday 342 answered to roll call. Evangelist A. S. Jeffries has just closed a meeting at Poplar Grove church in Casey which resulted in 33 additions.

The Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky is holding its 108th session at Lexington. Rev. Dr. W. H. Miley, of Louisville was elected Moderator.

The centennial celebration of the Disciples of Christ, in progress at Pittsburg, is being attended by thousands of members of the denomination.

The Tinsley-Smith meeting closed here Sunday night with 32 additions, 24 by baptism. One lady was baptized who is 84 years old.—Liberty News.

Rev. Leonard W. Doolin, of Louisville, will assist the pastor, Rev. Roddy, in a protracted meeting which will begin at the Baptist church in Harrodsburg Nov. 1.

Eld. Joseph Ballou's subject at the Christian church Sunday morning will be "Fortune Telling." A large audience will likely greet Lincoln county's "grand old man."

Rev. Dr. Dosker, of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville, was elected Moderator of the Kentucky Synod which opened its tenth annual session at Lexington Tuesday.

Rev. R. W. Binkley, of Weatherford, Tex., has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Eleventh-street Presbyterian church, Bowling Green, succeeding Rev. W. D. Hunter, who resigned to go to Tennessee.

The ladies of the Christian church sent their missionary society president, Mrs. A. E. Gibbons, as their delegate to the National Convention at Pittsburg this week. This is a deserved compliment to Mrs. Gibbons, as she has served the society most faithfully for the past six years as president.—Advocate.

OTTENHEIM.

Sam Dudderar was in this section measuring rock.

J. D. Morgan has bought a portion of the Russell tract of land, about 148 acres.

The recent showers have been a great blessing as the ground was getting dry and water scarce.

F. L. Davis and Fred Dyehouse have formed a partnership in the blacksmith business and will be prepared to do general work in that line at moderate prices.

W. P. Kincaid, of Garrard, was in this section Friday inspecting tobacco and leaving bids on the weed, 12½¢ being the highest price offered, but we have heard of no sales.

I. G. Terry and Dink Farmer were in this section last week electioneering, and have got the people confused, who are not very well acquainted with them, as they resemble each other so much in appearance and voice that they are afraid to pledge their votes for fear they will pledge to the wrong man.

The Covington Board of Park Commissioners refused to accept the offer of a tract of 14 acres of land in Covington to be used as a park. Several months ago they were offered this land by Arthur Goebel, a wealthy Cincinnati merchant. Mr. Goebel told them in so many words that he wanted the park named for his brother, to be known as "The William Goebel Park," and said that he would improve it, would place buildings in the tract and would make the park one of the most beautiful in Northern Kentucky.

The Magnolia flouring mill at Mayville burned, causing a $10,000 loss.

MIDDLEBURG.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Taylor died and was buried in Middleburg cemetery.

Rev. A. S. Jeffries closed a meeting at the Poplar Grove Baptist church Friday night with 37 additions to the church.

Prof. Charles Sullivan, of Cincinnati, will lecture at the Baptist church here Friday night. His theme, "Fads, Fashions and Faces" will likely draw a good crowd.

There will be a mass convention of the democrats of Middleburg and Walltown voting precincts at Yosemite next Saturday, Oct. 16, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for magistrate, to be voted for at the November election.

The county campaign seems to be dragging along quietly. Neither party seems to be as busy as it might be. It is presumed that the republicans think they have it, and the democrats think they can not get it, and so matters go easy with both.

There is a stock company being formed to extend the telephone line, known as the Farmers line, from C. Bastin's store, its present terminus, to this place. This will put us in touch with the Eastern and Southern part of the county, and also with points in Lincoln and Pulaski counties and will be of great convenience to our people and those on the line.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Young spent last week in Louisville attending the Bankers' Convention. W. T. Miller left Sunday for New Castle, Ind., to visit his sister, Mrs. Spurin Sharp. Mrs. Jane Miller returned Friday from Constantine, Mich., after an extended visit to her son, W. M. Oaks. Miss Bettie Walter, of Hubble, came home with Miss Nannie Adams and spent several days with her. Dr. J. M. Haney spent last week with his folks in Pulaski. Henry McAninch went to Louisville this week. Dr. J. M. Blair, of Russell county, republican nominee for the Legislature, was here looking over the field. The doctor did not impress any one very favorably, not even those of his own party; but he is a fair specimen of Legislative timber usually sent out by the republicans of Russell county. It is reported that he was "loaded for bear" or some other kind of game when he was here, but we did not investigate, hence we do not vouch for the truthfulness of the story. Dr. Blair may not be as brilliant as one would expect of a Representative, but has sense enough to draw his pay, and that is about all we are expecting of him.

For Prohibition.

Gen. Fred D. Grant is now a total abstainer and an advocate of prohibition of the liquor business. Here is an extract from his speech made at Chicago:

"Because I have seen that strong drink has been the cause of untold misery to individuals, to families and to communities, I believe that prohibition would be of inestimable benefit to this country and to the world," said Gen. Grant. "I am convinced that its honest enforcement would solve many of the social problems of the land. I have favored the cause of prohibition all of my life. Not that I have always been a total abstainer, for I have not been, although I am one now, but I have consistently believed that the liquor traffic was a source of evil. As my belief was strengthened by my own observations, I decided that the cause demanded more than passive acknowledgment of its truth. So I am an out-and-out prohibitionist."

Frightful Fate Averted.

"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Disbury, Kelliber, Minn., "without Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Infalible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures burns, scalds, old sores, boils, skin eruptions. World's best for piles. 25¢ at Penny's Drug Store.

A Knoxville dispatch says that Mrs. Eliza Leftis, aged 95 years, a wealthy widow, has entered the public schools as a pupil in the first grade. She goes to school with her two grandchildren. She has learned her letters since school started and can figure to the rule of three.

They have arrested a fellow out at Pasadena, Cal., as a dangerous lunatic, when all he wanted to do was to tell Mr. Taft how to run the government. And there are thousands of them running at large.—Frankfort Journal.

DECEASED.—Edith Blanche Roberts died at her father's, S. G. Roberts' home at Maywood, Tuesday, Sept. 28, of typhoid fever after an illness of three weeks, and was buried at Highland Sept. 29 after Rev. Cook had made an appropriate address. Blanche was an earnest christian, being a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at Highland. She departed this life, leaving in the memory of all who knew her as a kind and gentle girl. She, in the first of her illness, realized she was going to cross the great river called Death, and asked in her prayers for all her loved ones to meet her in the great beyond, saying: "If God calls I am ready." She leaves a father and mother and several brothers and sisters as well as a host of friends to mourn her departure. True it is said: "Gone but not forgotten." "Why weep for her who serenely to her final rest has passed, while the soft memory of her virtues yet linger like twilight hues when the bright sun has set?" F. G. W.

Thy Hosiery.

The socks I darn for thee, dear heart, Mean quite a pile of work to me; I count them over, every one apart, Thy hosiery, thy hosiery.

Each sock a mate, two mates a pair, To clothe thy feet in storm and cold; I count each sock unto the end, and find I've skipped a hole.

Oh, carelessness, this thy reproof, See how it looms across my sole, I grind my teeth, and then in very truth I darn that hole, sweetheart, I darn that hole!
